

Labelmaster® is pleased to sponsor the 2008 Annual Dangerous Goods Instructors' Symposium. You are invited to this free, non-commercial event in Deerfield Beach (Ft. Lauderdale), FL, on October 21-24, 2008.

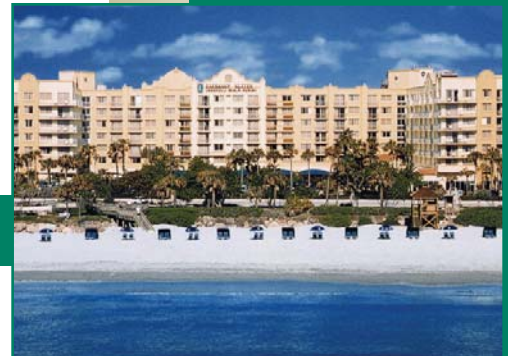

This unique, four-day symposium enables dangerous goods instructors to network and discuss important trends and issues.

Last year, we set our sights on the unique perspectives, needs and challenges of training professionals, and trends and developments that would affect us in the future. This year, we continue that focus and also address how we make our organizations more effective and reflective of dangerous goods training needs. Industry experts can expect to have plenty of opportunities to network with fellow instructors.
