

Developing an Association

DGTA takes shape

Certification of Trainers

- Instructional Expertise
 - Subject Matter Expertise
 - NESHTA Certified Instructional Technologist
 - Subject Matter Specialties
 - 49 CFR IMO *RAM *Packaging
 - TDG ICAO *6.2 *Geographic
 - ADR Rail *Class 1
- * Ideas for future

Work Done

Investigate Certifying Organizations

Recruit participants from various countries and backgrounds

Present concept to NESHTA Board

Hold “Kick Off” Meeting at COSTHA conference

Evaluate relationship to COSTHA Initiative and DGAC/PHMSA Project

Investigate NESHTA’s CIT Process

Hold 2nd meeting around DGAC meeting in DC

Work Done

Develop Website

Investigate NESHTA's CIT Process

Gain acceptance in NESHTA

Hold first "Open" meeting – develop Need-to-Know criteria

Publish Press Releases

Hold 2nd "open" meeting at DGISIII – start developing test questions

FAQ's

Do you have to be a member of DGTA to participate?

NO – this is an open process

Do you have to be a Trainer to participate?

NO – we want input from those with various expertise

FAQ's

Do you have to be a member to take the certification exam?

NO – this is a voluntary certification

If you join DGTA do you have to site for an exam?

NO – inclusive not exclusive

FAQ's

If you have other recognized certifications do you have to sit on an exam?

Maybe – looking into reciprocity

Do we have government participation?

NO – YES – Maybe

FAQ's

What does DGTA membership cost?

$250/year

20% discount for 1 company with 5 members

Value of Membership

Part of developing a recognized career path for DG Trainers

Have a voice in the organization and its future directions

Be partners with other DG professionals

Full benefits of NESHTA membership (insurance, publications for trainers, trainers conferences, etc.)

Value of Membership

Access to special information on members only part of website

Discounts on courses, exams, conferences, etc.

AND FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY

1 year free subscription to HAZARDOUS CARGO BULLETIN for the first 100 new members by 31 January 2009

www.dgtrainers.org

www.neshta.org

